By C. L. B.

PERSONAL

THEY'RE RUNNING A NAG AT TIA JUANA BY THE NAME OF CORN. MUST BE SOME BUG.

Mother's in the kitchen, rolling maul and hope. Jimmy's on the front porch. Looking out for cops.

Imagine a meal where you can get soup, fish, entrees and dessert for 25 cents. There's no place where you can get it—but IMAGINE!

A Beautiful Thought

"There is a time for everything" but your hard-luck story.

CHILDREN ARE THE ONLY LUXURIES THE POOR MAN CAN AFFORD AND IF THEY CAN'T THEY DO.

Never Said a Word

A New York restaurant has employed mutes as waiters—damn waiters, as it were.

Our Point of View

A radical is anybody who differs with us. A conservative anybody who is slower. Than we think we are.

THE ONLY PERFECT HUSBAND IS DEAD, AND NOT MANY HUSBANDS CONSIDER IT WORTH WHILE TO GO TO THAT EXTREME.

Very Costly Burial

One emperor of Japan had a funeral that cost the nation something like $100,000. But that is a mere bag of bull-dust! John Barleycorn's funeral has cost the United States over $100,000,000, and we have not started to bury him yet.

SOMETHING FOR THE GOSSIPS THEY SAY THAT ADAM AND EVE WERE NEVER MARRIED.

Oh, You Conceit

A girl would rather spend a month in the dental chair than to let her mustache grow and cover up her crooked, pearly teeth.

THE REASON THAT A WOMAN CAN ALWAYS REMEMBER HER MONEYSOON IS BECAUSE IT WAS THE LAST TIME HER HUSBAND EVER SPENT ANY MONEY ON HER WITHOUT HOLLERING HIS HEAD OFF.

AMERICAN'S HEAD PHILIPPINE POST

(By Associated Press) MANILA, P. I., Dec. 15.—Only two government bureaus in the Philippine islands are now headed by Americans. The other government offices, except the post of governor-general, are administered by Filipinos. The two American-held posts are the directorship of education administered by Luther W. ### FARMERETTES BREAK UP HOME, CLAIM

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 15.—Forty frisky farmerettes camped in the vicinity of the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Albert Jovin in Healdsburg, to assist in harvesting the crops. And straightway the domestic tranquility of the Jovin home was shattered.

Today Mrs. Jovin has a divorce. The wife told Judge Deasy that after taking some of the farmerettes motoring and dancing, Gabriel became so frisky he kicked her out of bed and threatened to throw her out of the house "if she talked back."

HAMILTON DISTRICT PRODUCING STEADILY

H. Z. Peters, manager of the Eureka Hamilton company, is spending a few days in Ely on business for the company, and reports that the old-time camp is moving along slowly, but surely. The Eureka-Hamilton company is doing some development work on the Mammoth No. 1 claim, cutting a four-foot vein of $50 ore. Wilson & Johnson are preparing to continue development work through the entire winter and are still shipping ore and will continue to do so until the roads are blocked with snow. Harwood and others, who have a lease on the Jennie A. mine, have made a shipment and have several shipments to follow. They have laid in supplies with the intent of continuing development during the winter months. —Ely Record.
